Criteria for the Constable Sarah Beckett Memorial Scholarship

The CRD strives to be a place where inclusion is paramount and people are treated with dignity regardless of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religion, marital status, family status, physical or mental disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or economic status.

The scholarship applications are evaluated based on academic achievement, financial need as expressed in the covering letter, and community service record. We welcome applications for this scholarship from all groups. We strongly encourage applications from First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples, racialized persons and those who identify as 2SLGBTQ+.

Purpose:

The Capital Regional District (CRD) Traffic Safety Commission awards a Scholarship to a post-secondary student based on demonstrated academic achievement, financial need, and an express interest in pursuing a career in law enforcement.

Eligibility:

The students eligible for assistance must reside in the Capital Regional District, be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, conventional refugee or refugee claimant. You must be enrolled and about to begin studies, or currently studying a program leading to a law enforcement career in a recognized Canadian post-secondary education institution.

Criteria:

You must write a letter detailing why you should be the recipient of this award including your financial need and how this scholarship would address that need. Consideration will be given to academic achievement, financial need and the student's community service record. Students should submit a scholarship application on the form provided by the CRD.

Guidelines:

Scholarships will be awarded on an annual basis and disbursed in August.

Amount:

Each scholarship awarded will be a maximum of $2,000 annually.

Deadline:

The application deadline is June 24th. The deadline is the date after which applications will no longer be accepted. The CRD uses the postmarked date to determine mailed entries.

Renewal process:

This scholarship is not renewable.

Please submit applications by June 24th to:

Capital Regional District
625 Fisgard St, PO Box 1000
ATTN: Traffic Safety Commission
